

Carol Walewski Engineering Supervisor

As the Systems Engineering Supervisor, Carol manages the department activities and procedures that drive success. The expectation is to exceed / meet corporate and functional objectives. Carol assists with defining the Systems Department budget, establish metrics, track and report department performance. Coordinate manpower, program / project headcount and coordinate cross functional customer requests.

Carol leads and guides the system engineering team toward achieving their functional objectives and provide all necessary support to meet the program targets. Interface with customer and manufacturing facilities with regard to design and development.