

Hilary Simmet is a 10-year veteran of the very competitive world of philanthropy. She is a graduate of Western Michigan University, where she was an avid volunteer in the community. She is currently a Community Director and the Signature Chefs Auction (SCA) State Lead for the Michigan March of Dimes, where she has dedicated herself to the health and well-being of families and children.

In her roles at the March of Dimes, Hilary has worked with hundreds of volunteers in order to further the mission of the organization and secure funds. In her three years as the SCA State Lead, the revenue for the eight events has grown by over 22%. She credits her success to the relationships she has built with her colleagues, volunteers, corporate partners and individual donors.

She is passionate about giving back to the community and spending time with family and friends.
